New Introductions For 1930

EL REY—(O. & C.)

This is a large decorative of the Jersey Beacon type. Color: golden orange, shading to deeper orange at the center. It is a vigorous grower and insect resistant. Winner of the American Home Achievement medal at the Los Angeles Biltmore Dahlia Show, 1929. Also First Prize in the three-year seedling class at Santa Monica, and San Leandro, 1929

$10.00 Net

LA REINA—(O. & C.)

A decorative of fine form, color, rich straw-yellow, with the tips of petals shaded a golden brown.

$10.00 Net

LOS FELIZ—(O. & C.)

Here is a large, loose-petaled decorative. A seedling of Elite Glory. Tall grower, and a color that every one likes, rich, deep red, like the Hadley Rose, the center with a black sheen.

$10.00 Net

LA PALOMA—(O. & C.)

This rich, creamy-white will, we think, prove the best of its color introduced to date. An immense full petaled Hybrid Cactus, reminding one of the Incurved Chrysanthemum.

$10.00 Net

EL NEGRO—(O. & C.)

The blackest dahlia we have ever grown. A very strong grower. Large size. $3.00

AMERICAN TRIUMPH—(Am. Dahlia Farms)

A true cactus. Winner of the American Home Achievement medal at New York. The color is a clean, rich red. Fine stem and sturdy plant. Bloom of largest size, and beautiful formation.

$10.00
